Louisville, Ky., Nov. 8.—No matter what result the face of the returns of yesterday's election show, a contest is very likely to occur. Additional returns received today and tonight continue to show Republican gains, and, basing an estimate upon the normal complexion of the precincts still unreported, indicate a plorality of 6,000 or 8,000 for W. 8. Taylor for governor.

The belated returns are mostly from mountain counties, which are strongly Republican. The Eleventh district which in 1886 gave McKinley a plurality of 19,000, is only about haff reported. Eleven out of inheren counties in this district give Taylor pluralities agarcegating 12,062, indicating that the following figures of the Enquirer's estimate of the nonlinear counties in this district give Taylor pluralities agarcegating 12,062, indicating that the fact of the figure agarcegating 12,062, indicating that the fact of the populists. Total, 36.

House—56 Democrats, 16 Republicans, 2 Populists. Total, 36.

House—57 Democrats, 40 Republicans, 2 Populists. Total, 40.

This gives the Democrats in the general assembly a majority of 12 votes on joint ballot, exclusive of the five Populists.

In view of the probability of a con-est over the vote for governor, this tatement made by Chalrman Long of

In view of the probability of a contest over the vote for governor, this statement made by Chairman Long of the Republican state campaign committee at 11 o'clock tenight, is significant. Said Mr. Long:

"The lexislature is close, but I think we have lost both houses. From semisficial returns from all counties except twelve, and careful estimates from these, we have carried the state by 1,000 obturality for Tayion."

In the event of a centest it will commectore the legislature. This lies with the offices only of governor and liquiding a cutest for covernor, shall be chosen in the legislature by lot, the senate scienting these and the house eight members. The decision of this board is not final nor conclusive. It must report to the general assembly, whore further action may be taken.

Tonight's developments bring the legislature into preminence because of the probability that it ultimately will have to determine who is to be the next governor of Kentucky. In all expressions upon the result of the election coming from Democratic headquarters, the legislature has been claimed as safe for that barty. No statement of its make-up has been given, but it is probable a number of members citatimed by the Democratic party are not Goebel.

arrength of the parties in the assembly.

Returns received by the Courier Jour, mal up to 1:20 a. m., give Goebel a plurality of 2:00 votes. These figures are based on returns from 1.731 out of 1.882 precinets. Of the sevency-two missing precis**-, twenty are in the Republican Eleventh district, seven in the Republican counties of the Tenth district, and thirty-one in the Democratic counties of the Tenth district.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 8.—Senator Goebel arrived here at 8 o'clock tonight, and was met at the train by a crowd of 1.500 enthushastic admirers. From the balcony of the Capitol hotel, where his headquarters is iocated. Mr. Goebel made a speech in which he said:

BRITISH BELIEVE THAT TIDE OF WAR HAS TURNED

They Now Look For More Cheerful News From the Scene of Action in South Africa.

Indications That General White Will Be Able to Hold Out · Until Buller's Forces Arrive.

London, Nov. 2.—To the eyes of military experts the darkeat page of the war is now being written. But even that is libuminated with bright passages such as General White's victorious sorties. If he can keep the British flag flying over Ladysmith until he is relieved, the campaign will turn a fresh page and with the advance of Sir Redvers Buller's force, the British public is promised more cheerful reading.

This feeling of relief, inspired by recent good tidings is avertheless tinged by a certain anxiety lest General White should again make some fatal miscalculation involving a repetition of the Nicholson's Nek disaster. Her majesty does not share this anxiety and apparently is sangulne of White's ability to pull through successfully. It is asserted she has writh a to Lady White expressing sympathy with her hugband in the trials and difficulties he is not provided the factor of her own undiminished confidence in the strain and difficulties he is not read to provide the part of the second tides he has writh a to cally white of her own undiminished confidence in the series of the latter in the event after the second of the calvert between Armide and his generalship. The purport of this letter has been cabled to General White by the Marquis of Lansdowne.

Movements at Estcourt.

Movements at Estcourt.

The most interesting news tonight is a discoatch from Estcourt, announcing the departure of a strong force of mounted troops and artillery for a destination not given in the advices. Another message announces the arrival at Estcourt and Pietermaritzhurg within the last few days of reinforcements from Durban and that 2,300 troops are assembled ready for an advance to Colemo when the opportunity arrives.

The latter discoatch throws light upon the former, and the force which left Estcourt Monday has doubtless reoccupied Colemo and possibly is now advancing cantiously up the road toward Ladvsmith. General White's sortie of Fridax almost to the banks of the Trigela river encouraging its commander in the hope of joining hands with him. General Joubert, the latest advices would indicate, drew in his horns after Friday's engagement and has since withdrawn the southern Boer contingent, leaving only outposts on the line from Ladysmith to Colemo.

Boers Haye Retired.

The Borrs who occupied Colemo about the middle of light week settred without damaging Bulwer bridge over the Tugela river, or the railrond as far north as the village of Neithrope, seven miles south of Ladysmith. Evidently they nurse a hope of eventually utilizing both in their descent on Pietermaritzhurg.

Meanwhile the British are also able to use both, as they have already done.

Captain Lamberton goes to Washington to await orders.

Want the Gold Dollar.

New York, Nov. 8.—At the meeting of the New York Board of Traite and Transportation the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved That we sak the congress of the United States to emact a law establishing the gold dollar as the standard and measure of value, and providing that bonds and notes of the United States and all paper money, including mational bank notes, shall be redeemable in gold.

Vanderblit Will In Court.

New York, Nov. 8.—The will of the late Cornelius Vanderblit was offered for formal probate today before Probate Clerk Washburn. All the living witnesses to the week Is out bysa further will, which was executed June 18, 1898, and the second April 4, 1897, and the second April 4, 1897, and the second April 4, 1899, were present and testified to their signatures on the will and codicils.

Manwhile the British are also able to use both, as they have already done in running up an armored train, which may at the present moment be ower. San they have already done in running up an armored train, which may at the present and the set davance of the Extourt forces.

A the stourt and Pietermaritaburg the defensive works have been greatly strengthened within the last few days and they are now believed capable of command. The Britishers advanced in the present process of the United States and all paper money, including mational bank notes, shall be redeemable in gold.

Vanderblit Will In Court.

New York, Nov. 8.—The will of the late force which General Joubert would at the present and they are now believed capable of the present and they are now believed capable on the right of the hill formed by the first detachment of General Buller's army corps.

Buller's Troopships.

None of the troopships have arrived. The British batteries were observed in a long the out the place of the Burley in the defense of the effect of the Roer's center, along the rection of the Roer's center, along the first of the late of the batteries o with 4.500 troops were expected to be in Care Town harbor by this time, but the war office last evening issued a statement to the effect that the only arrivals at Care Town were the Sumatra from Durban, with wounded; the Southers Cross, from Gibraltar, with mules, and the collier Wenvoe.

Of course it is possible that dispatch boats have been sent to meet the troopships with instructions to proceed direct to Durban, and in that event the war office statement that not one has arrived at Cape Town would be literally accurate, even though several should be half way between "Cape Town and Durban.

The situation looks brighter at Mafeking, where the Beers are ansarcally disheartened at the uncyceted resistance, a large body of their force having been detached to the south to assist in the investment of Kamberley, ground which the cordon is drawing tighter. Evidentiv the Boers infent to make a concentrated effort to capture Kimberley and that arrived enders the force of a Boer contingent from Pretoria with German astillery gunners, moving in a southerly direction, is taken to mean co-opera-
